

Fun Creative Writing Classes for Young People

All classes are held at the Thomas Wolfe Memorial Historic site in downtown Asheville. Participants enjoy writing fiction, creative non-fiction and poetry in the very house that served as the basis for Look Homeward, Angel by Asheville's most famous writer.

Through fun, thought-provoking writing exercises and discussion, young writers will find an encouraging community where their creative efforts will shine. Weather permitting, the downtown location also provides opportunities to hunt inspiration on "writing safaris." Class participants will have the opportunity to tour the historic home as writers, not tourists. Writers of all skill and/or experience level welcome!

Each class:

- is facilitated by Janet Hurley, local free-lance writer with a Masters in Creative Writing. ( check out true-ink.com for more information on Janet's experience)
- is limited to six participants.
- includes an end-of-class public reading for friends and family ( participation optional).
- provides the opportunity to publish work on the True-Ink website.

- is $85, participants supply their own spiral bound notebook and pen or pencil and snack.

For more information and to register, please go to www.wolfememorial.com

First session 5 classes a week
September 15-October 17 (5 weeks)

Monday Cool Scribbles
4th and 5th grade
1:00-2:30 Homeschool
3:00-4:30 After school

Tuesday Cool Scribbles
4th and 5th grade
3:-4:30 After school

Thursday
Raw Ink
6th -8th grade
2:30-4:00 Home School
4:00-5:30 After school

Second session November 11-December 9
3 classes a week

Monday Cool Scribbles
4th and 5th grade
1:00-2:30 Homeschool
3:00-4:30 After school

Tuesday Raw Ink
6th -8th
4:00-5:30 After school